Welcome to Yale Catholic Academy Our Mission "We are committed to providing our children with a strong foundation of academic excellence in which they may develop their minds, hearts, and faith, so that they may become productive members of society and achieve their greatest potential." We are a Christ-centered, Catholic school with a proud tradition of academic excellence. Our school offers a challenging, yet flexible education program designed to develop our students' intellectual, emotional, and spiritual potential. We believe, "The education of the whole person is important; the Catholic faith provides a powerful framework for understanding the 'whole person' within." "Jesus wept" is a powerful teaching based on the Gospel of John 13:1-14:1, Matthew 26:14-16, and the life of Mary in her grief over her son's death in the Garden of Gethsemane. Leverage reveals the hidden faces of finance We're aiming for a higher standard of transparency in the finance industry Consumers are given plenty of advertising and information about the products and services they are receiving. It's the banks who have to be doing all of the legwork to sell their services. The industry speaks to the public in the way it wants to be spoken to and tries to get money out of you in whatever way it can. But there is always more that can be done. We're a long way away from that high standard of regulation that has made the UK market so regulated, and yet we still have a long way to go. When consumers are given plenty of advertising and information about the products and services they are receiving, it's the banks who have to do all of the legwork. Despite the mountain of regulations, the industry still speaks to the public in the way it wants to be spoken to and tries to get money out of you in whatever way it can. But there is always more that can be done. The consequence of that is that the financial services industry is consistently under-pressure, and under-educated, with a substantial amount of money being made off of its negative side. It's great advertising for finance, but what are the circumstances of why people have to be educated on finance? What's it like being a part of the industry?

As a lender, I know that we are something of
